

IASLT stands for the Irish Association of Speech and Language Therapists.

New graduate member practicing overseas (€140 per year) and Full member practicing overseas (€140 per year) are categories for SLTs who qualified in the Republic of Ireland, or have completed the validation process, and are working overseas

International membership (€140 per year) applies to those who have qualified overseas, and have not completed the validation process, and are practicing outside the Republic of Ireland. This category may also be used by a therapist who qualified in Ireland and is practicing overseas but does not meet the requirements for other membership categories.

The membership year starts from the date of joining and renewal is due 12 months after this date.

Requirements for international / overseas membership

- You must hold a recognised professional qualification in speech and language therapy
- You may hold international membership if qualified and working outside ROI. If you qualified outside the ROI, your qualification must be validated by IASLT before you will be approved for transfer to another membership category.
- Full and new graduate members practising overseas must agree to meet IASLT standards for continuing professional development. 5% of full members (including those practicing overseas) are audited each year. International members are exempt from this condition.

Features of international / overseas membership

- Access to members' area of IASLT website
- Receive IASLT publications (Update magazine and Journal of Clinical Speech and Language Studies)
- New graduate practicing overseas and full member practicing overseas may use the titles New Graduate MIASLT, and MIASLT respectively.
- Full members practicing overseas may apply for a letter of good standing. This can be used to apply for membership of an association that has signed the Agreement for the mutual recognition of professional association credentials (MRA). This is only available following one full continuous year of full membership.
