Clinical Cases in Dysfluency

Edited by Kurt Eggers and Margaret M. Leahy

Series: Clinical Cases in Speech and Language Disorders

Clinical Cases in Dysfluency is an imperative work that introduces dysfluency in clinical and cultural contexts while encouraging reflection on clinical decision-making involving the assessment and management of clients. With inputs from eminent clinical researchers across the world, this text brings together diverse expertise to provide readers with innovative ideas for their own practice. This is an indispensable resource for students and clinicians in the domains of Fluency, Speech and Language Pathology and Communication Disorders, and will be valuable reading to anyone interested in communication disorders, dysfluencies, and application of theory to practice in these disciplines.
