

IASLT Conference 2026

VIRTUAL POSTER PRESENTATION GUIDELINES

1. Poster Format & Size:

- Orientation: Portrait (vertical)
- Maximum Dimensions: A0 (84.1 x 118.9 cm)
- Authors may use the provided poster template as a reference; however, this is not mandatory, and creative freedom is encouraged. We acknowledge that not all posters fit a single format.

2. Suggested Poster Layout:

- Title Author(s) and Affiliation(s)
- Introduction/Background
- Research questions/ Objectives
- Methods
- Results (figures and tables preferred over text)
- Conclusion/ Discussion
- Acknowledgments & Funding/ Conflict of Interest statement (if applicable) and References

3. Design:

- Use a clear, readable font and high-resolution images
- Title font size should be at least 72 pt.
- Avoid excessive text.

General Policies

- All conference attendees must be registered for the conference.
- The final poster must reflect the accepted abstract.
- All poster presentations are due to be uploaded on to Ex Ordo by 30/4/26.
- You can log on to your Ex Ordo account to upload your poster. Further information on how to upload your poster can be accessed here <https://help.exordo.com/uploading-presentation-files>

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

1. Do I need to register for the conference to present my work?

Yes, all selected authors attending the conference must register for the conference.

2. Will abstracts be published?

Accepted abstracts will be available to access for all registered attendees on the IASLT Conference 2026 app, as well as on Ex Ordo. There will be no book of published abstracts for this conference.

3. What are the poster size requirements?

Poster dimensions are A0 portrait (84.1 x 118.9 cm or 841 mm x 1189 mm) as shared in the guidelines.

4. Can I include QR codes or digital materials on my poster?

Yes. Presenters are encouraged to include QR codes, links to datasets, or supplementary materials to facilitate discussion and dissemination.

5. Can I make changes to my abstract after acceptance?

Presentations must reflect the accepted abstract. Any major changes should be communicated to the conference organizers.

6. If the poster is virtual, do I need to attend in person?

While this is not mandatory, we encourage you to attend the conference. Your attendance will be an opportunity to facilitate live discussion, networking, and engagement.

7. Do I need to print my poster?

No. This is a virtual poster format only. Your poster will be displayed digitally on the conference platform.

8. What happens if I miss the upload deadline?

Late submissions will not be accepted or displayed. Contact the conference organizers immediately if you encounter issues.